

SAY SOMETHING IF YOU SEE SOMETHING

Know the signs. Make the call.

Child sexual exploitation can happen any time of the day. Any day of the week. Keep your eyes and ears open while on duty. You can watch for situations that may suggest child sexual exploitation and help make your property unattractive to people who commit these acts.

FRONT DESK

- A man who refuses to leave a credit card imprint and insists on paying cash – there may be a reason he doesn't want his identity known.
- Teenage girls loitering in the lobby or hallways.
- Guests who request a specific room that is isolated and private.
- Local guests who want to rent a room.
- Guests who appear secretive about their activities or who try to conceal their activities in their room.
- Frequent visitors who do not appear to have a reason for being in the hotel.
- Guests who are in and out of the property at irregular hours.

HOUSEKEEPING

- Guest rooms with a lot of condoms or condom wrappers, drugs and drug supplies like syringes, pipes, bong, broken light bulbs, spoons and plastic bags.
- High traffic to guest rooms.
- Guests who do not want their rooms cleaned.

BAR & ROOM SERVICE

- A hospitality suite with businessmen and young girls – the men may be here for an event, convention or meeting.
- Ask guests who appear to be under 25 for ID in licensed areas and when delivering room service.

ALL STAFF

- Two (or more) older men and teenaged girls entering your property – they could be heading to a party room.
- Many men entering and exiting a room at regular intervals – a pimp may have arranged for men to visit a room where a child is being sexually exploited.
- A young girl or boy who appears withdrawn or who hides their face.

SHHH!
